Customer Reviews

This is an extraordinary book! At our Unity Church we decided to assign it for your group read. We are all so amazed at the phenomenal networking of prayer this family was able to achieve! "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them"...Mathew 18:20

The documented story of how a spontaneous nationwide prayer network save a child's life when medical science had abandoned all hope.Kathy Callahan, a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Navy, tells the gripping story of her daughter Deirdre's descent into a deep, life-draining coma as a result of Reye's syndrome. Despite the doctors' pronouncement that Deirdre would not live, the family refused to abandon hope and began to pray.As word of Deirdre's condition spread, a prayer network mysteriously came into being across the United States. She miraculously emerged from her coma with no ill side effects.The author weaves a suspenseful, yet practical and instructive story of how the family used prayer and alternative holistic therapies in restoring life to their daughter.This book is a tribute to a family's love and to the power of prayer that transcended medical knowledge.--- from book's back cover
