Last Breath (The Rayne Tour)

Synopsis

With his last breath, a dying man whispered four stunning words into Shaley O'Connor's ear. Shaley is reeling after two murders on the Rayne concert tour. But she has no time to rest. If the dying man's claim is right, the danger is far from over. Shaley's quest for the truth leads to the mysterious and wrenching past of her mother and father. Could what happened to them so many years ago threaten Shaley's life now?

Customer Reviews

Still reeling from the murder spree in the first book in The Rayne Tour Series Always Watching and from the killer's last words to her, "Your father sent me," (The long lost father she's yearned to find out about for so long sent a killer after her? Impossible!... Isn't it?), sixteen-year-old Shaley O'Connor struggles to keep going as the decision is made to continue the tour of her rock star mother's band. But at the hotel after the Denver concert ends her mother gets into a shouting match with the Cat, the despicable paparazzi who harrassed them so much in the first book he was issued a restraining order that he's ignoring, and enraged, he pushes her in front of a car and escapes in the confusion. With the star hospitalized the Rayne tour is over, and Shaley insists on staying in the hospital room with her mother. Faced with their first quiet time together in years and overhearing

Shaley discussing the killer's last words to her on the phone with her friend Brittany, Rayne decides to tell Shaley the truth about her father. Meanwhile in alternating chapters the hunt for the renegade paparazzi continues (he's been spotted at the hospital), and the hunt for her father (or the man claiming to be her father) begins. He just got out of prison, and readers know from his black band headed chapters that he is determined to get to Rayne and Shaley...at all costs. Barely two days ago when all this began, Shaley had been told that God is always watching, and now she is finally ready to start seeking Him out, but she's not even sure how to begin,...
